

I Hear the Tambourines Clanging

I hear the tambourines clanging

Clanging out a sweet song

I hear the tambourines clanging

Begging me to go home...and I will...and I will

I hear the tambourines clanging

Wasting the time away

I hear the tambourines clanging

Urging me not to stay

Middle

They keep telling me I should be free

But I can't go for I'm a lost soul

They ring out the tune, telling me that soon

I will meet my fate, maybe early, maybe late.

Instrumental Break

I hear the tambourines clanging

A jingle jangle melody

I hear the tambourines clanging

Calling out just to me

I hear the tambourines clanging

Singing a siren's song

I hear the tambourines clanging

Begging me to go home...and I will... and I will
