

Tomorrow

Today, the hurt you have is so real
Today, you say nothing can ease the pain you feel
But I'll keep hoping for tomorrow to come your way
For tomorrow may be better than today

Tomorrow, may the wind be always at your back
Tomorrow, may you find the fortunes you lack
May your goals be within reach,
May you stroll along life's beach,
And may your love never cease, tomorrow, tomorrow.

Today, the sun may be hidden from your view
Clouds and rain swell up inside of you
Just keep on hoping for tomorrow to come your way
For tomorrow will be better than today

Tomorrow, set your sails on the right course
Tomorrow, feel the power of positive force.
May all your dreams come true
May you win and never lose
And may the Good Lord shine his light on you, tomorrow.
